SEVEN CAPTURED FIFTH CAV. ALRYMEN MURDERED BY LADRONES.

NUMBER OF ARRESTS MADE

Unfortunate Men Were Taken Prisoners on Decoration Day at Binangonan, Rizal Province, Luzon—Impossible to Recognize Four of the Bodies So Badly Were They Mutilated by the Insurgents.

Manila, June 17.—The bodies of the sergeant, two corporals and four privates of the Fifth cavalry, who were captured May 30 by ladrones at Binangonan, Rizal province, this island, have been recovered. Most of the bodies had been hewn limb from limb, and it was found impossible to recognize four of the dead men.

A number of arrests in the matter have been made and nine men have been absolutely identified as belonging to the band of ladrones which captured the Americans. The identified men include two members of the police force of Teresa, Morong province.

The American soldiers were buried together. It was impossible to make separate interments.

SIX CHILDREN MURDERED.

Terrible Crime of a Temporarily De-ranged Mother.

Hazlehurst, Miss., June 17.—Details have been received here of one of the most terrible tragedies ever enacted in this section of Mississippi as a result of which the six children of Louis Westrope, a well known farmer living near the little village of Brandywine, thirty miles southeast of Hazlehurst, on the edge of Claiborne county, were killed, while the mother, who is charged with having committed the murders while in a fit of temporary insanity, lies seriously wounded from a bullet fired by herself.

Five dead children were found scattered around the premises with bullet holes in the head of every child. Among the ashes of the ruined home were found the charred bones of the infant baby.

Diligent search failed to locate the body of the mother. Outside of the yard was found a bloody apron and tracks leading towards a swamp. From facts in evidence the spectators soon were convinced that Mrs. Westrope had committed the deed. Search was immediately instituted for her and she was finally located in a country graveyard, where she had spent the night. Beside her was a rifle. When she saw the searching party she placed the rifle to her breast and pulled the trigger, the bullet passing one inch below the heart, seriously, but not necessarily fatally, wounding her.

The woman conversed intelligently and said she did not know how she came to be in the graveyard or what she had done. Those who know her and her family believe that she committed the crime when mentally deranged.

RACE WAR GOES ON.

Outrages Being Perpetrated on Negroes at Eldorado, Ill.

Carbondale, Ill., June 17.—The race war which has been in progress at Eldorado, Ill., since May 29, when a mob attacked the colored industrial school, a school modeled after the famous Tuskegee (Ala.) school, still continues. The homes of colored citizens have been stoned, warnings sent the occupants to leave the vicinity and shots fired into their homes late at night. Many, through fear, have left. There remains only five families, and two of them will leave at once. A mob visited Rev. Peter Green, pastor of the African Methodist church, and stoned his house. Some of the white residents profess to fear that colored labor will be used in the mines which are being opened in the vicinity. Governor Yates has been appealed to for protection.

JEALOUSY THE MOTIVE.

Twentieth Infantry Private Shoots a Married Woman and Himself.

Columbus, O., June 17.—Harry W. Bragg, a private in Company F, Twentieth infantry, shot and killed Mrs. Lizzie Tibbitts and then shot and killed himself. The tragedy was enacted on the grounds of the Columbus barracks and jealousy was the motive. Bragg, whose home is in Pelican, Wis., served in the Philippines in the Thirty-fourth United States volunteers. Mrs. Tibbitts came here from Chicago as cook for Major Augur of the Twentieth regiment. Her husband was an enlisted man, but was dishonorably discharged several weeks ago. Bragg became infatuated with the woman. Just preceding the tragedy Bragg quarreled with her because she had gone out with another man.

LOWERS ITS DIGNITY.

Judge Jenkins Attacks the Principle of Elective Judiciary.

Chicago, June 17.—United States Circuit Court Judge James C. Jenkins attracted marked attention by an address advocating the abolition of an elective judiciary in the state courts. The address was delivered at the commencement exercises of the John Marshall law school. Judge Jenkins said:

"I cannot repress the conviction that the principle of an elective judiciary with short tenure of office and a meager compensation allowed, tends to weaken the character of the bench, to lower its dignity, to lessen its hold upon that respect which is so essential to the due administration of the law and to place temptations about the position to which it should not be subjected."

"I believe it to be in the interest of the state, in the interest of good government, to secure certainty in the law, to obtain the highest ability and the best experience of the profession in the adjudication of the law, that judges should be appointed by the governor and should hold during good behavior or until a specified age; that they should have a salary commensurate with the value in private life of similar ability and experience; and, if retired at a specified age, should not be thrown aside as a worn out garment, but pensioned, that the closing years of the life of a just judge may be passed in dignified ease."

A NORTH DAKOTA DIVORCE.

New Jersey Court of Errors Recommends It Be Set Aside.

Trenton, N. J., June 17.—The court of errors rendered a number of opinions during the day. In the case of St. George Kempson, the court sustained the court on chancery on practically all of the points adjudging Kempson in contempt of court.

The court held that Kempson was under jurisdiction of the court of chancery and that he must obey the court to the extent of seeking to have set aside the North Dakota divorce obtained by him from his first wife. The court held that while Kempson could not of himself have the North Dakota decree reopened, he could at least represent to the court of that state that he had obtained the decree by falsely representing himself as a resident of North Dakota and that unless he did this the judgment of contempt will continue to stand against him.

TERRIBLE ELECTRIC STORM.

One Life Lost and Much Property Damaged at Richland, Ga.

Columbus, Ga., June 17.—A terrible wind, rain and electrical storm did considerable damage at Richland, thirty-nine miles from here on the Seaboard Air line. J. M. Hurley, a prominent peach merchant, was instantly killed by lightning while standing under a shed. His wife, who was near him, was severely shocked. Several stores were unroofed and their stocks almost ruined by wind and water. The new school dormitory, the negro academy, the Methodist church, the new Christian church and the residence of Ed Woodward were blown to the ground, besides numerous small houses and shops. Trees were uprooted and gardens and crops were ruined. The peach crop suffered greatly.

TO SEARCH FOR BODIES.

Divers Will Look for the Nine Sailors Drowned at Duluth.

Duluth, June 17.—Manager Wolvin of the Pittsburgh Steamship company, owners of the steel corporation fleet, quiets rumors to the effect that no effort is to be made to recover the bodies of the nine sailors who were lost on the ill fated steamer Thomas Wilson, which was sunk off Duluth ten days ago in collision with the steamer G. G. Hadley, which also went down. Preparations to send divers down will be made and the search will be as thorough as possible. The divers at the same time will investigate the condition of the wreck and report the feasibility of raising her. The ship was valued at $225,000. The work of raising the Hadley is progressing favorably.

ERUPTION CONTINUES.

Kilauea Volcano in Hawaii Is Still Throwing Out Lava.

Honolulu, June 17.—Further reports from the island of Hawaii indicate that the eruption of Kilauea is continuing and many people here are planning to make the trip to witness the spectacle. At last accounts the eruption did not amount to more than a rise of lava from the smaller crater of Halemau-man, with sheets of flame. The active crater, instead of being on an eminence is down in a basin seven or eight miles in circumference, and with precipitous sides all around.

WERE STEALING A RIDE.

Two Men Killed and Two Injured in a Big Four Freight Wreck.

Brazil, Ind., June 17.—A Big Four freight train was wrecked between Perth and Carbon, killing two men instantly and injuring two others. The four men were stealing a ride from Lena to Terre Haute and, as the train was going down a steep grade, an axle broke, wrecking eight cars. The two men who were killed were pinned under one of the cars and remained there for several hours.

NUMBER IS NOT LARGE

ONLY A FEW FIRE AND MINE BOSSES JOIN THE ANTHRACITE STRIKERS.

COAL REGION STAYS QUIET

Sixth Week of the Struggle Between the Operators and Mine Workers Opens Without a Ripple to Disturb the Calm—Several Small Cases of Assaults on Nonunion Men and Police Reported—Neither Side Talking.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 17.—The sixth week of the anthracite coal miners' strike has begun without a ripple to disturb the calmness of the situation. Rain fell nearly all day, which helped to keep more than 150,000 idle men and boys indoors. Several reports of assaults on workmen and coal and iron policemen were received here from different sections of the region, but none were seriously injured. Most of the attacks occur under cover of darkness or at starting time in the morning. It was expected that the day would witness the refusal of a large number of fire bosses and other mine bosses to go to work, but the best information obtainable shows that the number of men who quit was not large. In fact several of the mining superintendents in this region asserted they had more men at work at the engines and pumps than they had last week. President Mitchell and other labor leaders question this assertion, and, on the contrary, claim that nearly half of the men who were at work on Saturday refused to enter the collieries Monday. Neither side gave out any figures.

There was a revival of the story that the Central Pennsylvania soft coal miners will be called out very soon, but President Patrick Gilday of the Central Pennsylvania district threw cold water on the proposition. He reiterated that the Central Pennsylvania men would not be called out except as an extreme measure. He thought a curtailment of soft coal production in his district would be a more likely action. Some of the miners in his region, he said, have already suggested to him that the number of days work each week be cut down to three, four or five, thus cutting off a considerable supply of soft coal that is coming east.

Nothing was given out at strike headquarters, President Mitchell merely saying that there was no change in either the anthracite or the West Virginia strike. The mining superintendents of the big coal companies and individual operators had nothing new to report.

STRIKERS IN CONTROL.

Armed Miners Have Taken Charge of Two West Virginia Collieries.

Roanoke, Va., June 17.—Information received here from the coal fields states that the armed marchers have disbanded and given up their arms.

A number of miners who are returning from the coal fields have reached here. They report a very serious state of affairs around Simmons Creek and Goodwill mines, on the West Virginia side. They state that about 500 strikers, armed with rifles, revolvers, etc., were marching from that section toward North Fork, and demand that the nonunion men now at work quit. They also say that the strikers have taken charge of Goodwill and Simmons Creek mines and express their determination not to allow the workers to resume and will resist any attempt that may be made by the mine owners to resume work.

KNOCKED DOWN THE GUARDS.

Two Military Prisoners Escape From Alcatraz Island.

San Francisco, June 17.—Two military prisoners whose names have not yet been ascertained, and who had been taken from the army prison at Alcatraz island to work in the construction of a road at Fort Baker, escaped from their guards during the afternoon. The prisoners knocked two guards down and took their rifles and ammunition from them and fled into the brush.

Two companies of coast artillery, in command of Lieutenants Howard and Ludlow and numbering 150 men, were turned out to search for the escaped prisoners. Along with them are about a hundred citizens of Sausalito.

CARS RUN ON ALL LINES.

Unusually Quiet Day in the Street Railway Strike at Pawtucket.

Pawtucket, R. I., June 17.—When in the opinion of ten prominent citizens, including Mayor Fitzgerald and Chief of Police Rice, tranquility has been restored in place of mob rule, the militia ordered here last Thursday by Governor Kimball in connection with the street car strike, will be withdrawn.

This conclusion was reached at a meeting between Governor Kimball, Brigadier General Tanner and fifty business men at the state armory.

With the exception of three cases of stone throwing the day was quiet. Cars were operated on all local lines in this city during the day and in Central Falls, as usual, but were withdrawn at night.

Situation in the Kanawha Fields.

Charleston, W. Va., June 17.—The strike situation in the Kanawha fields is more intense. The Winnifrede, which has been working more men than any other mine, is out. None of the men showed up for work in the morning. Three mines of the Kanawha and Hocking company accepted the concessions and are working. Orders were issued to close all the other mines of the company. The company operates all the mines on the north side of the Kanawha river.

Floods Threaten the Mines.

Scranton, Pa., June 17.—A veritable cloudburst occurred here, flooding cellars and causing the river to rise in a threatening manner. Rain is still falling heavily and should it keep up at the present pace until morning, the river will overflow its banks and reach many of the mine openings.

Shopmen Strike at Sioux City.

Sioux City, Ia., June 17.—Sixty machinists, boiler-makers and helpers in the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad shops in this city walked out because the company would not grant their demands for an increase in wages of 20 cents per day.

Spain Will Send a Cuban Minister.

Madrid, June 17.—It is announced here that the government has decided to appoint a minister to the Cuban republic.

Smallpox in Canadian Labrador.

St. Johns, N. F., June 17.—The outbreak of smallpox in Canadian Labrador is growing serious. The fisher folk on the northern coast of Newfoundland are appealing to the colonial government to urge the Canadian ministry to prohibit intercourse between the infected locality and the remainder of the seaboard, where the ravages of smallpox would be very severe did the disease once spread to it.

Drowned by Boat Capsizing.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 17.—While boating in the Big Sioux river with his sons, Howard, aged sixteen, and Cressie, aged fifteen, W. W. Hawley, a well known resident of this city, was drowned. The party was in a rowboat which was capsized in some unaccountable way and all were thrown into the water. The boys were rescued. The body was recovered.

Weather.

HER FINAL REST.

Service Over the Remains of the Late Mrs. Harry Edwards Largely Attended This Afternoon.
This afternoon the funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Harry Edwards were held at St. Paul's Episcopal church and it was one of the largest funerals in Brainerd for some time. The entire force of the boiler shops, where Mr. Edwards is foreman, laid off this afternoon out of respect and attended the funeral in a body. The solemn funeral service of the Episcopal church was read by Rev. C. E. Farrar and it was very impressive.
On account of the wide acquaintance of the deceased there was a big turnout of the people of the city. Mrs. Edwards had been identified with the Episcopal church in this city for nearly twenty years, and was one of its most devoted and faithful members. She was a member of the guild and for many years had charge of the choir of the church and was a beautiful singer herself.
The floral contributions were profuse, which was a mark of the high esteem in which she was held by her many friends.

MRS. NELLIE McPHERSON DEAD.
Beloved Wife of James McPherson Passed Away Last Evening after a Struggle With Consumption.

Last evening at 5 o'clock Mrs. Nellie McPherson, beloved wife of James McPherson, died after a long struggle with that dread disease, consumption. Deceased was in her twenty-third year and was thus plucked from earth in the early stages of womanhood. Besides the husband one little daughter is left to mourn the loss.
Mrs. McPherson had been a patient sufferer for sometime. Realizing only too well that the end was not far distant she bore up bravely under it all and displayed the courage of a true heroine. All that kind friends, medical care and loving agencies can render could not save her from death and all were resigned to the will of Him who doeth all things well and she died in perfect peace.
The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the family residence, Rev. A. H. Carver officiating. Interment will be made in Evergreen cemetery.

James Settled It.
Two boys in a rural Scotch district were one day discussing what sign it was when the cuckoo is heard for the first time in the year. One of them said it was a sign of getting married, while the other said it was a sign that you were going to be rich. A farmer, overhearing them, said, "That cannot be true, because I have heard it many times, and I am not married yet, and I am certainly not rich."
Just then a local worthy, known as "Daft Jamie," was passing by, and the farmer said, "Jamie, can you tell us what sign it is when you hear the cuckoo for the first time?" "Yes," said Jamie as he took his pipe from his mouth, "it's a sign you're not deaf."

A FRIEND'S ADVICE.
Will Often Help You Greatly. Read What a Brainerd Citizen Says.
You may hesitate to listen to the advice of strangers, but the testimony of friends or residents of Brainerd is worth your most careful attention. It is an easy matter to investigate such proof as this. Then the evidence must be conclusive. Read the following:
Mrs. N. G. Blake, of West Brainerd says: "I suffered a great deal from inflammation of the kidneys and I grew worse in place of better. My back in the region of the kidneys was sore, was lame and hurt me very much, an aching pain being ever present. The kidney secretions were dark in color and on standing deposited much sediment. When Doan's Kidney Pills were advertised I sent my son for a box. I was a little afraid I would not be able to use them for I cannot take some kinds of medicine.
I found, however, that they were mild in their operations and did not produce any bad effects. Before taking them very long the kidney secretions became healthy in color, all deposit was removed, and the soreness and pain were replaced by a perfectly comfortable feeling."
Sold for 50 cents a box, at the McFadden Drug Co., H. P. Dunn & Co. and all druggists. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.
Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

MAYOR AMES ARRESTED
DETECTIVE NORBECK SKIPS.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 17.—Mayor Ames was placed under arrest this morning and brought into court to answer to an indictment for offering a bribe concerning the contest for the position of sheriff. The claim is made that Mayor Ames made a proposition to three of the county commissioners to divide a certain amount of the fees of the sheriff's office between them if they would vote for his candidate. He was granted further time to enter a plea.
Detective Norbeck, who was on trial for having accepted a bribe, has skipped out and his whereabouts are unknown, the proceedings coming to a sudden end this morning. His bail has been declared forfeited.

OLDEST INDIAN CLERGYMAN
On the White Earth Indian Reservation Dies--He was Over One Hundred Years of Age.

Rev. Chas. Wright, rector of the Episcopal church on the Leech Lake reservation, passed through the city today enroute to Duluth to attend the Episcopal convention and convocation. He informed a representative of the DISPATCH at the depot that Rev. Johnson Megaowh, the oldest Indian clergyman in the north west, died at the White Earth reservation a few days ago, where he had gone to spend the last days of his life. The old clergyman was 100 years of age and there are some great tales connected with his career and work among his people.

TANKS OF FACTS.
There is a Difference Between Information and Knowledge.
A great many people mistake information for knowledge. What a man most needs is not that he may be possessed of an accumulation of facts, but that he may know where to look for the facts when he wants them. We all know the unpleasant individual who is continually seeking information. You show him about your city and he asks: "How many miles of street railway have you in your city?" "What is the price of ice here this summer?" "How many churches are there here?" "How long has that building been standing?" etc., ad nauseam. You don't know and wonder why he wants to. You know where you can find out, and that is enough for you.
And then there is that equally disagreeable person who actually seems to be a tank of facts. He has more information than anything else and delights in asking you most extraordinary questions. When you confess your ignorance, he will look upon you with pity and exclaim, "What, don't you know?" and then tell you when you don't want to know at all. For example, he is much surprised because you don't know how long the Amazon river is. He persists you—nay, he insists—that you should guess, only that he may the better humiliate you. His brain is so incumbered with facts that it is almost useless. Life is too short for a man to try to constitute himself a library of universal knowledge when the reservoirs of such knowledge are ready to hand when it is needed.—Manchester Union.

Speaking Italian.
A piece of parliamentary repartee quite as good as the famous retorts in the house of commons and our congress comes from a New England university. Two students ranged against each other in debate grew very warm and took to commenting on each other's oratorical manner. One of them spoke with much emphasis, letting the stress of his voice fall explosively on certain passages.
His opponent opened his speech by saying, "My friend on the negative thinks to win this debate by speaking exclamation marks and italics."
The other could do nothing at the moment to turn the laugh which this speech raised, but when his turn came he "got back" at his opponent with this retort:
"My friend on the affirmative says I speak italics. I should say that he uses italics in the way they are used in the English Bible—not to emphasize, but to mark what is not original and inspired."—Youth's Companion.

How Victor Hugo Worked.
Victor Hugo always wrote standing at a high desk especially constructed for him, throwing off sheet after sheet as fast as he filled it till he would be quite snowed up in leaves of foolscap. He often rose in the middle of the night to note down an idea or a verse. He got up for the day usually at 6 o'clock and would devote from six to eight hours per diem to his work. He made but few corrections, his poems being thought out complete in his brain before he put pen to paper. It is a well known fact that he indulged in the arduous task of composition while traversing the streets of Paris on the top of an omnibus. When working out some great conception, he would spend hours in this way.
